

*Ranked number 1 in both its specialisms - Music and Dance
Guardian Higher Education/University League Tables 2008*

RESEARCH FELLOW

Music & Dance Science: Optimizing performance potential via an interdisciplinary music and dance screening and profiling programme

£19,619.40 (0.6 contract approximately three days per week)
Part-time, fixed-term two years (LABAN, DEPTFORD, LONDON)

Trinity Laban, the first UK conservatoire of music and dance, combining Trinity College of Music and Laban, two leading centres for music and contemporary dance, is developing a strong research profile and establishing its research culture. Our commitment to research and scholarly activity ranks creativity, individuality and originality as core values. This key role is significant in developing the infrastructure to support a vibrant research environment.

We are seeking to fill an important role in an exciting investigation the health and performance of musicians and dancers via an interdisciplinary screening and profiling programme funded by The Leverhulme Trust. This interdisciplinary longitudinal research project will profile and screen approximately 500 students training at a vocational conservatoire for music and dance across two years.

You will be an experienced researcher who will undertake in-depth qualitative and quantitative research, with partial project management responsibility. You will have a PhD, or nearing its completion and/or substantial research experience in areas of exercise and/or sports science or a related discipline. You will also have knowledge of, and/or a keen interest in dance and/or music training and performance.

For a job pack and application form, please go to the vacancies page of our website www.trinitylaban.ac.uk or contact: Paula Emms, HR Assistant, Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance.

Telephone: 020 8469 9476 or E-mail: pemms@trinitylaban.ac.uk

Closing date: 12 Noon Friday 24 April 2009 (No Agencies)

Interview date: week commencing: 4 May 2009

CVs will not be accepted unless accompanied by a completed application form.

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance is committed to Equal Opportunities and Diversity.

Trinity Laban's programmes which fall within the UK framework for higher education qualifications are validated by University of Westminster and City University. Trinity Laban, a company Limited by guarantee, is registered in England: Kings Charles Court, Old Royal Naval College, London SE10 9JF. Company No. 51090. Registered Charity No.309998.

Trinity Laban incorporates:

TRINITY
COLLEGE OF MUSIC

LABAN